The Rockford Area Economic Development Council and its vice president for Development, Mark Podemski, received the 2010 Partner of the Year award from the Chicago Jobs Council at its annual meeting June 4 in Chicago. The CJC advocates to ensure access to employment and career advancement opportunities for people living in poverty in Illinois.

Podemski was recognized for being on the planning committee for The Rockford Jobs Council Center for Tax and Budget Accountability and the Sargent Shriver National Center on Poverty Law's series of community meetings across the state. He conducted an introductory presentation at the event and managed the event flow.
